PLEASE PRINT CLEARLY

Dunedin Boat Club (DBC) - Membership Application Instructions:

1. Complete Your Initial Application: Be sure to fill in all the relevant information on the application, including your sponsor's name, boating experience, contact info, etc. Email a scanned copy of the application, along with a clear facial photo (please no hats or sunglasses) to the DBC Membership Committee. If you are not able to scan or email the application, you may hand deliver it at the next Monthly Membership meeting. The DBC Membership Committee email address is: Membership@dunedinboatclub.org
2. Board Member Interview(s): Within a few days after submitting your application to the DBC Membership Committee, you will be contacted by one or two of our Board Members for a brief in-person or phone interview.
3. Attend Two DBC Monthly Membership Meetings: Our General Membership meetings are held monthly on the 3rd Monday of each month at 7:00 PM, except in December when there is not a general membership meeting. Check our online calendar for upcoming General Membership Meeting dates: <https://www.dunedinboatclub.org/monthlymembershiptmeetings>
4. Attend a DBC Orientation Meeting: Our Orientation Meetings are held quarterly. Check our online calendar for upcoming Orientation Meeting dates.

TIMING NOTE: Should there not be an Orientation Meeting scheduled by the time your final application is to be presented to the Board for review, discuss with the interviewing Board member(s) the possibility of attending the next scheduled Orientation Meeting after your application is reviewed by the Board.

NOTE: We recommend completing all the above steps before completing your "Good of the Club" service activity.

5. Complete Your Good of the Club Activity: Complete at least one "Good of the Club" service activity. To volunteer, please send an email requesting volunteer opportunities to our Volunteer Committee at the following email address: Volunteer@dunedinboatclub.org

NOTE: Completing any or all the above steps does not guarantee you will be approved as member of the Dunedin Boat Club by the DBC Board.

6. Send in Final Application: Mail the following to the mailing address indicated below:

- a. Your completed application.
- b. Photo – Please provide a clear facial photo (no sunglasses and no hats please)
- c. Check – The amount of the check should be based upon the time of the year your application will be reviewed by the Board combined with the membership level (single or family). The details of the amounts (by quarter) are provided in the application below. Alternatively, you can hand-deliver your application and check to the Membership Chair at an upcoming Monthly Membership meeting.

NOTE: Before submitting your final application for consideration by the Board, be sure to get the following signatures on your application:

- i. Your Sponsor's Signature
- ii. Signature of the Committee Chair or Activity Manager responsible for signing off on your Good of the Club activity.

7. Application Review by Board: Completed applications are reviewed at regularly scheduled Board meetings held on the 1st Monday of each month. Shortly following your application review by the Board, the Membership Chair will let you know if your application was accepted or denied.

8. Receive Membership Packet and Key: If your application is approved, you will receive your "New Member Packet" and clubhouse key at the next scheduled DBC Monthly General Membership Meeting.

RESPONSE REQUIRED FOR NON-BOATERS:

Being a boat owner/kayak owner/former boater is not a hard and fast qualification for becoming a Dunedin Boat Club Member. That said, if you are not currently a boater and do not plan to become a boater, what are your reasons for wanting to become a member of the Dunedin Boat Club?

ONGOING VOLUNTEER ACTIVITIES:

The Dunedin Boat Club is a 100% volunteer organization. As a member of DBC, you will be expected to regularly volunteer each year. Everyone brings a unique set of skills and interests to the table. Please circle below the 2 - 3 committees where you would be most interested in volunteering your time:
